PROJECTS

Techkart

An eCommerce website for all the people who still have a gamer inside them, this website is a perfect blend of modern ui and superhero theme and it sells hardware products required for gaming, It also has a modern ui cart and also a payment gateway build using razorpay soap API.

Organ Donor system

It is a basic web development project but the speciality is it is build totally on JDBC without adding any kind of framework functionalities to it.

Only Chats

It's a chat application that is under development and it is designed on figma. I am trying to integrate AI into it. I'll add it to GitHub later.
